

ARRWIP List of Federal and State Prisons Housing Women in the US

In general, this list included prisons that house people who have female anatomy and identify as female. This list may not include all prisons that house people who are non-binary, intersex, or transgender.

Thank you to Julia Gips, MD, for your work on curating this list of women's prisons in the US, which we have updated as of 10/8/2022 by Erin Sommers and Kayla Blair.

Prisons marked with an asterisk () are male and female co-ed.*
